ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM 2009
June 18th, Saturday

Half Day
Colonial and Modern Lima 09:00 HRS or 14:00 HRS

This three-hour sightseeing tour offers the best of Colonial and modern Lima.

Included are Lima’s most imposing colonial churches and mansions such as The Government Palace, The Plaza Mayor, The City Hall and the Cathedral including the 17th Century San Francisco Monastery.

The tour ends with a visit to the modern suburbs of San Isidro with olives brought from Spain in the XVI century, the pre-Incan worshipper of Huallamarca and Pucllana, Miraflores Parque Central and Larco Mar, symbol of a modern Lima.

• Regular service
• 2 people as minimum.

US$ 28.00*

Shopping Tours 09:30 HRS

Pick up from your hotel where you will go to Camusso Factory where you will appreciate transforming Peruvian silver into original works of art

Then, Peru Art Crafts located on Larco Mar, where you will find art crafts from different cities of Peru

Finally, you will go to Esther Ventura, famous Peruvian designer of jewels “Her designers are as timeless as Peru itself. The past and the future blend into a unique moment in each jewel. The silver of the pre-hispanic roots and the textures and colours that she uses continuously open up the imagination to new combinations and give shape to a mythical splendour.”

• Price quoted with minimum requirement of 15 passengers, private service.

US$ 35.00
CONGRESO REGIONAL DE NEUROPSIQUIATRÍA
Fronteras de la Neuropsiquiatría
Lima - Perú 18 y 19 de Junio de 2010

June 19th, Sunday

Half Day

Pre-Columbine Museum  09:30 HRS
Larco Herrera Museum / Archaeological & Antropological Museum

Larco Herrera Museum is the world’s largest private collection of Peruvian Pre-Columbine art that comprise approximately 45,000 pieces of gold, silver, ceramics, textiles, stones, wood, etc. Each unique piece in each material. This museum is famous by its erotic pottery collection.

Then you will visit the Archaeological Museum, this small museum offers one of the best overviews of ancient Peruvian art and archaeology. The museum houses the Raymondi Stone Slab, the Tello Obelisk, and Nazca Pottery, together with other major collections, which can be appreciated in a chronological display.

US$ 45.00*
*Servicio regular

Half Day

H/D Gold Museum 14:30 HRS
The most important museums of the higher cultures of this part of the world are located in Lima. There is also invaluable goldsmithing jewelry. 500 years ago, Peruvian gold attracted European adventurers, and this caused the Inca Empire’s collapse, and the Viceroyship of Peru took place as a Spain colony. Furthermore, this museum exhibits valuable Pre-Inca textiles.

US$ 38.00*
*Regular Service

Full Day

Full Day Paracas  08:00 HRS

250 km (156 miles) south of Lima lies Paracas, a windswept, arid peninsula and site of one of Peru’s renewed archaeological sites. The Paracas Reserve, Peru’s largest coastal wildlife sanctuary includes the Ballestas Island, reached from Paracas by boat. These Islands are home to thousands of resident and migratory sea birds, many endemic to the Humboldt Current. They include pelicans, boobies, cormorants, terns, and gulls who share their habitat with herds of sea lions.

Program includes private transportation from Hotel to Paracas, English guide, visit Ballestas Island by boat, visit to Paracas National Reserve and lunch at the Restaurant on the way.

US$ 80.00*

Calle Tarata 294, Piso 6, Lima 18 Perú
Tel.: (511) 445-1031  Fax: (511) 445-1962
e-mail: eventos@impactaevents.com

TOUR OPERATOR